Art Unit: 3736

Claims 1-9, 30 and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 1 and 4 are rejected because in the clean copy of the claims, the claims run together. Claims 8 and 9 are rejected because there is no antecedent basis for the predetermined distance.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 32-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pfohl et al. Pfohl shows a device having a housing, a pressure and temperature sensor 50 (lung sounds) and 52 or 66 (heart sounds) and 72 located in the housing, and a display 36 located in the housing. The device transmits the signal using IR waves to a remote receiver 32.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-17, 30, 31, and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pfohl et al in view of Thorton. Pfohl uses IR communications, which is not a broadcast signal. Thorton shows a similar device that uses a radio wave. Hence, it would have been obvious to modify Pfohl et al to use radio communications, as it is merely the substitution of one known equivalent for another. The examiner notes that the signal of Pfohl attenuates to a negligible amount within a predetermined distance. With respect to claim 3, the device of Pfohl does not have a computer connected to the receiver. However, Thorton is an example of many devices in surgery/hospital environments where the signal is broadcast to a central monitor station having a computer to allow for global viewing and monitoring. Therefore, it would have been obvious to modify Pfohl to have a computer at the receiver end, to allow for better monitoring of the patient's condition. With respect to claims 8 and 9, Thorton further teaches that to avoid interference in the hospital, the output power of the transmitter must be limited to limit the range of transmission. Hence, it would have been obvious to modify the above combination to limit the range of transmission, to avoid interference. The examiner notes that the range in Thorton is disclosed as being in a hospital room, or 35-50 feet. However, the examiner notes that the exact range would have been a mere matter of design choice, depending on the size of the room.

Applicant's arguments filed May 30, 2002 have been fully considered but they are deemed moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO

Art Unit: 3736

MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
